Romulus, MI – The Romulus Public Safety Foundation proudly announces that its Chairperson, Bryan O'Connor Briggs, has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors for the Greater Romulus Chamber of Commerce.

With a deep commitment to community and well-being, public service, and economic progress, O'Connor Briggs brings to the Board a wealth of experience in civic leadership and a strong passion for strengthening partnerships between local businesses, first responders, and residents.

"I'm honored to join the Chamber's Board of Directors and represent the values of service, safety, and collaboration that guide our work at the Romulus Public Safety Foundation," said O'Connor Briggs. "This role is an opportunity to bridge public safety and economic development, ensuring that both our community and our businesses thrive together."

As Chairperson of the Romulus Public Safety Foundation, O'Connor Briggs has led initiatives focused on mental health for first responders, emergency preparedness, and community outreach. The appointment to the Chamber Board reflects the growing momentum around civic engagement and the Foundation's vision for a safer, stronger Romulus.

The Greater Romulus Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors is composed of local leaders and business advocates dedicated to promoting growth and prosperity throughout the city.
